The Washington Avenue church of Christ is a warm and friendly congregation of God’s people seeking to please Him in all that we do. We are eternally grateful for the perfect sacrifice of Jesus and the continual cleansing of His blood that we enjoy as we walk in the light. God desires all to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. God’s word is truth and our responsibility is to teach that saving message to all people. May God help us as we seek to glorify Him.

TODAY’S SCRIPTURE READING
HEB 11:8-10

⁸ By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

⁹ By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

¹⁰ For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

Thank you to our visitors for attending services with us today!
Please fill out a visitor’s card located in the back of the pew in front of you and drop it in the collection basket as it passes so we may have record of your attendance.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

What We Believe #38
By Austin Wiggins

Jesus said, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father but by me" (John 14:6). On another occasion the apostle Peter stated, "There is salvation in none other. For there is none other name under heaven given among men, wherein we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Here the Bible teaches that for one to be saved they must come to the Father through the Son. There is no other way to be saved. One cannot circumvent Jesus and get to heaven. These two passages are troubling to liberal theologians. The reason why? They do not like this exclusive claim to Christianity. They don't appreciate that Jesus is the only way to the Father. They want to preach that people can be saved in other religions as well, even when those religions deny Jesus is the Son of God They want to argue that you can live and die in the religion of your choice--Judaism, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, or not any religion at all-and still go to heaven when this life is over. Ironically, in doing this they have rejected the Jesus of the Bible. Therefore they have repudiated the only means by which they or anyone else can ever be saved.

One of the ways these liberal theologians try to get around this exclusive claim of Christianity is by teaching that all people will have a second chance to accept Jesus after death. One preacher I know personally teaches this. For some time he has been preaching for the Christian Church denomination. He claims that those who die lost will receive a second chance to be saved following their death. He says that anyone who does not accept Jesus in this life will get a second chance after they die. The idea is that if one dies in an unsaved condition that person will have another opportunity to embrace the Savior and be saved after this life is over. The problem with this theology is that it cannot be substantiated by the Bible. Nowhere does God give any hope to anyone that following death they will have another chance to be saved. This so-called 'second chance theology' does not come from God's word. It is unbiblical. Further, it is amazing that those denominational church members who attend where this "'Father" preaches can tolerate such heretical theology. Will they continue to tolerate these unscriptural views without any disciplinary action? My plea is that none within the community will be deceived by this error. Just remember that any religious message which is not taught by the Bible is a false doctrine. Don't believe it. Reject it as error.
