The Washington Avenue church of Christ is a warm and friendly congregation of God's people seeking to please Him in all that we do. We are eternally grateful for the perfect sacrifice of Jesus and the continual cleansing of His blood that we enjoy as we walk in the light. God desires all to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. God's word is truth and our responsibility is to teach that saving message to all people. May God help us as we seek to glorify Him.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READING
HEB 11:11-13

11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

Thank you to our visitors for attending services with us today!
Please fill out a visitor's card located in the back of the pew in front of you and drop it in the collection basket as it passes so we may have record of your attendance.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

What We Believe #44

By Austin Wiggins

What is baptism? The Bible reader will recognize that there are several "baptisms" mentioned in the New Testament. Now, however, I want to talk about the "one baptism" (Eph. 4:5), which is generally understood to be the baptism of the Great Commission. Remember that Jesus stated, "Go and teach all nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt. 28:19). In another account of the Great Commission, the author records the Master as saying, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. The one who believes and is baptized shall be saved" (Mark 16:15-16). When Jesus instructed the apostles to baptize people, what exactly did he want them to do? When Jesus says that one must be baptized to be saved, what exactly is he commanding? Just what does it mean to be baptized in obedience to the Lord's instructions? Fortunately, answers to these questions are clearly given in the Bible. For example, the book of Acts records the preaching of the apostles under the Great Commission and their baptizing folks just like Jesus instructed them to do.

The clearest example in Acts of what baptism is, may be found in Acts 8:35-39. Here, Philip, the evangelist, is preaching the gospel of Christ to the Eunuch. Philip explained that the Eunuch was obligated to be baptized in response to the gospel because the Eunuch interrupted Philip's sermon and asked, "Here is water, what hinders me from being baptized?" What followed next after the Eunuch's confession of faith was that both went down into the water where Philip baptized the Eunuch. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit miraculously snatched Philip away, and the Eunuch went on his way rejoicing-which was God's way of showing that the conversion was complete. This biblical account teaches us what the baptism of the Great Commission is, and what God wants humanity to do in response to the gospel in order to appropriate the blessings of redemption. The biblical record is plain. The inspired account is simple. It is easy to understand. Baptism is water immersion done to obey God and to receive the forgiveness of sins. It is the culminating act of one's initial obedience to the gospel in order to become a child of God.
